Though today's economy is thriving, several economic drivers, including tax laws, technology, labor, consumer behavior, and legislative change, have a huge impact on poultry and egg companies' financial management. Combine these challenges with the daily activities involved in recruiting and retaining accounting professionals, cyber security and internal controls, and you get a very complex role for financial managers. USPOULTRY's 2022 Financial Management Seminar, developed by poultry and egg industry financial professionals, will give you the tools to help increase your company's bottom line.

It's very important to stay informed of today's economic environment. Register today . . . Don't delay!
