

Poultry Breeder's Roundtable & National Swing Improvement Federation (NSIF) Joint Meeting

WHEN

October 13-15, 2026

WHERE

Embassy Suites Downtown
St. Louis, Missouri

2026 STUDENT RESEARCH COMPETITION

Present Your Research.
Build Your Network.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

Connect with students, faculty, researchers, and industry leaders at a cross-species event focused on animal breeding and genetics.

Competition Format*:

5 MINUTE LIGHTNING TALK & POSTER

$300 TRAVEL STIPEND For every student participant	$1,000 TOP PRIZE	$750 2ND PLACE	$500 3RD PLACE
--	------------------------------------	---	---

FEATURED INDUSTRY PARTICIPANTS

Allflex | Aviagen | Aviagen Turkeys | Cobb-Vantress | Hybrid | Hy-Line International | LeeO | Merck Animal Health | and more

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR ENTRY

1. Register for the meeting
2. Complete the submission form on page 2.
3. Submit this completed form to:
poultrybreedersroundtable@gmail.com

DETAILS & MEETING REGISTRATION:

www.uspoultry.org/programs/education/seminar/#nbf

QUESTIONS?

Travis Williams
Hy-Line International
Twilliams@hyline.com

*Please share with students and post-doctoral researchers in animal breeding and genetics programs. Students must participate in both events to be eligible for the prizes. Post-doctoral researchers are not eligible for competition prizes but are encouraged to participate.

STUDENT COMPETITION REGISTRATION FORM

STUDENT INFORMATION

Student name:

Presenting Author:

Institution:

Department:

Academic Year:

Email:

RESEARCH INFORMATION

Research Title:

Co-authors or student collaborators (if applicable):

Presentation format:

Faculty Mentor / Advisor:

Mentor email:

ABSTRACT

In 250 words or less, provide an abstract describing the background, objective, methods, principal results or expected outcomes, and significance of the work.

Submission certification: I certify that this submission accurately represents the work described and that all contributors are appropriately acknowledged.

Student signature:

Date:
